Honorable Mike Mansfield
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Mansfield:

Thank you for your letter of 27 May concerning [redacted]

STAT

[redacted] visited our personnel office on 2 May to discuss the possibilities for his employment with us and, following this interview, his Form 57 was reviewed by appropriate officials. Even though [redacted] had indicated his willingness to accept a substantially lower grade than the GS-17 he has held with the Federal Aviation Agency, we were unable to locate a suitable opening for him and he was advised of this result by telephone.

STAT

For quite some time, our emphasis has been on the development of a career service based on the selective recruitment of exceptional young men and women and a continuing program of internal development and competitive advancement. Most vacancies are accordingly filled by reassignment and advancement within the ranks of career employees. Only occasionally are there openings requiring specialized skills, experience, or stature not to be found among our careerists and there appears to be no current requirement of this type which would permit us to take advantage of [redacted] interest in service with us.

We have recorded [redacted] qualifications and shall be glad to give his application every consideration in the event an appropriate opportunity should develop but we have no indication that this might occur at any time in the immediate future.

Your interest in [redacted] application is appreciated and we shall advise you if we should locate a position for him at some later date.

Sincerely,
